Alums Tune-In to Updated Site

FORT WORTH, Texas – There are plenty of reasons to stay up-to-date with what’s happening in your alumni community, and for five Texas Wesleyan University School of Law alums who recently registered or updated their information on the updated alumni web site had an extra incentive to do so – the chance to win a free iPod Nano.

Regina Moore '06, Anada Gunn-Sanders '03, Max Striker '06, Patrick O’Keeffe '03, and Robert Blankenship '95 were selected for the prizes through a random drawing conducted earlier this month. To be eligible, alumni had to register with the site or change existing information on the site prior to Dec. 31.

Even though the iPods are gone, you can still register with the Texas Wesleyan University School of Law alumni web site to keep in touch with your law school community. Visit www.alumni.law.txwes.edu.
